

OXFORD

India Development Report

1999–2000

edited by

Kirit S. Parikh

Indira Gandhi Institute of Development Research

Contents

List of Figures

xiii

List of Tables

xv

Overview

1

Kirit S. Parikh

Reforms: The Task Ahead	2
The Macroeconomic Scene	3
Poverty and Social Insecurity	5
Primary Education: A Dismal Record	6
Air and Water Pollution: New Initiatives Needed	7
Urban Transport: A Growing Problem	9
Power Sector Reforms	9
Coal, Oil, and Gas	11
Political Economy of the Revenue Deficit	12
India's Public Finance: The Issues	13
Tax Evasion, Amnesty Schemes, and Black Income	14
India's Export Competitiveness	15
Exporting in a Globalized Economy	16
Corporate Governance and Share Ownership	17
The Insurance Sector	18
Financial Sector	20
The East Asian Crisis: Lessons for India	22
How to Go about Privatization?	23
References	24

1. Second Generation Reforms

25

Kirit S. Parikh and Ajay Shah

The Decline of Traditional Industrial Mass Production	25
Increasing Economic Concentration	25
Accelerating Technological Progress: More Power for the Powerful?	26
The Advantages of an Open Society	26
Globalization: A Fact, not an Option	27
Financial Sector Integration	27
Outward Orientation—II	28
Facing the New Millennium: The Second Generation of Reforms	29
In Conclusion	34

2. Macroeconomic Development and Prospects	35
Manoj Panda, Gangadhar Darbha, and Kirit S. Parikh
Introduction	35
Macroeconomic Developments and Problems	35
An Assessment of the Long-term Growth Process	46
References	47
3. Persisting Poverty and Social Insecurity: A Selective Assessment	49
S. Mahendra Dev and Ajit Ranade
Introduction	49
Recent Poverty Estimates and Trends	50
Rising Food Prices and the Poor	53
Poverty Alleviation Programmes: Issues and Experiences	56
Prognosis for Growth in Agriculture	62
Other Aspects of Social Insecurity	62
Concluding Comments	66
References	66
4. Primary Education for All	68
Madhura Swaminathan and Vikas Rawal
Introduction	68
Why Education?	68
What have We Achieved?	69
Compulsory Education	75
Current Expenditure Trends	78
Financing Universal Primary Education	80
Conclusions	83
References	83
5. Air and Water Quality Management: New Initiatives Needed	85
Kirit S. Parikh, Jyoti Parikh, and Tata L. Raghu Ram
Introduction	85
Air Quality Scenario in the Country	85
Water Resources	87
Why are Air and Water not Treated Adequately?	89
Cost of Providing Drinking Water, Sanitation, and Wastewater Treatment	90
Cost of Air Pollution Control	92
Pollution Management Policies in India	93
How to Improve Air and Water Quality	95
References	96
6. Urban Transport	98
R. Ramanathan
Introduction	98
Urbanization in India	98
Patterns of Growth of Urban Transport in India	99
Issues Associated with Urban Transportation Trends	100
Steps Ahead: Key Policy Suggestions	103
Summary	111
References	111

7. Power: The Critical Infrastructure	113
Anjana Das, Jyoti Parikh, and Kirit S. Parikh
Introduction	113
Present Status	113
Power Sector Reforms	115
Some Issues Related to Power Sector Reform	121
Concluding Remarks	123
Glossary	124
References	124
8. Coal, Oil, and Gas	125
Anjana Das and Jyoti Parikh
Energy Sources	125
Coal Industry in India	126
Petroleum	130
Natural Gas	136
Concluding Remarks	139
References	139
9. The Political Economy of the Revenue Deficit	140
Ashima Goyal
Introduction	140
Is the Government Profligate or is It Cash Starved?	141
Interventions and Incentives	146
Interventions and Outcomes	147
Concluding Remarks	150
References	150
10. India's Public Finances: Select Issues and Suggested Reforms	152
Ragbbendra Jha
Introduction: Characteristics of Tax Reform	152
Public Expenditure	155
Some Important Consequences	157
Some Policy Suggestions	158
Summary and Conclusions	161
References	161
11. Tax Evasion, Amnesty Schemes, and Black Income: Theory, Evidence, and Issues	165
Shikha Jha
Introduction	165
Measuring Tax Evasion	166
Improving Compliance: Amnesty Schemes and Other Methods	168
Consequences of Black Economy	171
Size of Underground Economy	173
Summary and Policy Conclusions	174
References	175
12. India's Export Competitiveness and Finance	177
A. Ganesh-Kumar, Kunal Sen, and Rajendra R. Vaidya
Introduction	177

Important Policy Changes	178
Overview of Trade Flows	180
Sectoral Competitiveness	182
Financing Patterns and Investment: Exporting Firms versus Domestic Firms	187
Conclusion	190
References	190
13. Exporting in a Globalized Economy		191
K. V. Ramaswamy
Introduction	191
Globalization and Growth in Global Production	191
Global Commodity Chains and Export Networks	193
Possible Strategies for Indian Exports	196
How Can India Enter into Global Production Linkages?	197
Conclusion	199
References	199
14. The Governance of Indian Corporates		201
Jayati Sarkar and Subrata Sarkar
Introduction	201
The Fundamentals of Corporate Governance	202
The Indian Corporate Sector	205
Institutions of Corporate Governance in India	208
Governance of Indian Corporates: The Current Scenario	212
Emerging Policy Issues	216
References	218
15. Insurance		219
Ajit Ranade and Rajeev Ahuja
Introduction	219
Insurance Basics	220
Scepticism about Market Structure	222
Regulatory Framework	223
The Current Insurance Scenario	224
Benchmarks from Abroad	226
Key Emerging Areas	227
The Political Economy of Insurance Reforms	229
Concluding Comments	229
References	230
16. Risk and the Indian Economy		231
Susan Thomas and Ajay Shah
Risk and Economic Liberalization	231
Risk Measurement	232
Risk in Three Major Financial Markets	235
Derivatives: Markets for Risk	239
Risk and the Conduct of Economic Policy	242
17. Rethinking Prudential Regulation		243
Ajay Shah and Susan Thomas
The Sources of Financial Firm Fragility	243

Objectives of Prudential Regulation	245
Existing Ideas in Prudential Regulation	246
Flaws in the Prudential Regulation of an Exchange	249
Flaws of the Basle Accord	250
The Way Forward	251
References	255

18. The East Asian Crisis of 1997: Some Implications for India

256

Subir Gokarn

Introduction	256
Perspectives on Crisis	256
Perceptions of the East Asian Crisis: A Selective Overview	257
Integrating the Role of Proximate and Structural Factors	259
Implications for India	264
Conclusions	265
References	265

19. Privatization and Auctions

267

P. G. Babu and Nibedita Das

Introduction	267
Privatization: The Global Scene	268
Methods of Privatization	269
Auction Forms	270
Private Entry in Indian Telecommunications	272
Analysis of the Auction Mechanism in the Indian Telecommunications Sector	274
Lessons to Learn: The US Spectrum Auctions	276
Concluding Remarks	277
References	277

Appendix Tables

281